Dedication

The CLAIRVOYANT has always been dedicated to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to our school. This year we have chosen Miss Allie Fritz, who for twenty-two years has given unselfishly of her time and talent to assist not only the classes which she has advised but also the many others who approach her for guidance and counsel.

Miss Fritz, who graduated from Michigan State Normal College, has been a senior class advisor several times--and she has always shown, even under these trying circumstances, a readiness and willingness to give her best for her students.

Therefore, for her loyalty and helpfulness, we hereby dedicate this, the CLAIRVOYANT of 1954, to Miss Allie M. Fritz.

In order to give valuable learning experiences through school life, it's necessary for the school to call upon the assistance of those few in the community who are willing to spend their spare time and energies helping students in their extra-curricular projects.

These learning experiences cannot always be provided by our teachers or in the classroom. Drawing on the knowledge of well-informed people of the community, as well as making field trips to nearby commercial and recreational establishments, gives us the opportunity to find knowledge which we would not otherwise be able to obtain.

We would prefer not to cite any personal group by name for fear of omitting some worthy patron. But we would like to mention some of the ways in which the student body has been aided. First, outstanding students have received generous scholarships, and honorary awards; second, various recreational activities have been organized for the benefit of local young people; third, individuals have given liberally of their abilities and their funds to support athletic and academic activities.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"YOU CAN'T KISS CAROLINE"

Class

All aboard for Senior Land! The Luxury Liner scheduled for four eventful stops had its starting point in 1950 with ninety-three members as its passengers. Ten years earlier, in 1940 however, forty eight members of this group, eager for knowledge and adventure, had launched forth from Kindergarten Land on a small schooner. Six preparatory cruises along the way paved the way for more exacting experiences later. On these, Misses Gibson, Mackley, Glassford, and Bolster, also Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Stine acted as guides. Two intermediate stops filled with fun, new skills, and varied adventures were under the guidance of Mrs. Jane and Miss Hildebrandt. It was here that they presented the Alphabet Assembly with Tuey Bartrow acting as Mistress of Ceremonies, that Shirley Schlinkert represented them at their Homecoming Court and that, during another interval of entertainment at their Halloween Carnival Leo Westrick was crowned Prince. At this time too they felt the need of ship's officers and chose Leo Westrick as Chief Mate, assisted by Don Fleury as Second Mate. To guard their funds and to keep the ship's log, Mary Jane Crawford was selected.

Now they were ready for that first stop at Freshman Land! This proved to be a memorable pause for many reasons. Their passenger list has grown to ninety-three, for a ship named St. Mary's was encountered along the way as well as a few schooners known as Hathaway, Clark, Keves, Wright, Bell, and Big Hand, who had each unloaded a few passengers desiring this more important voyage. Their chief guides were Mrs. Logsdon, Miss Hildebrandt, and Mr. Painter. Harriet Pollex was First Mate, assisted by Second Mate, Bill Path. Keeping track of their funds and writing accounts of activities was Clyde Varty. Yes, new skills were becoming evident and, aside from these, there was time also for fun. They staged the traditional May Dance, which was named "Rainbow Rendevous," with Tuey Bartrow acting as general chairman. Tuey also became a cheerleader, and Nancey Mehlberg one of the majorettes. Carroll Bailey won fame by being crowned Princess of their Halloween Carnival. Much of the strangeness of the new land had worn off following the initiation of the new passengers; and, as they resumed their journey, these carefree voyagers believed the worst of their experiences were over; they were wrong.

After many weeks of clear sailing with ship's officers Bob McMain, Bill Path, Barb Linderholm and Bob Groff, and a few jolts and bumps, when encountering rough waters, they reached the second stop, that of Sophomore Land. During this interval, a few passengers were lost. Under the guidance of Miss Hildebrandt, Mrs. Logsdon and Mr. Dawson, they enjoyed the Harvest Moon, again a Halloween Carnival, starring Chuck Wolfe and Dick Zimmer in famous boxing matches, also Bob Reynolds and Bob Sargent, Peter Forbes and Jim Williams in exciting wrestling matches. Carroll Bailey and Tuey Bartrow were attendants in the annual Homecoming Court. Yes, these passengers had grown both in stature and in intellect.

Much more smooth and happy sailing, with slight dignity, was their approach into Junior Land. Some of their passengers left during this important stop. Chief officers now were First Mate, LeRoy Sturgeon; Second Mate, Bill Brand; Secretary, Carol Suisse; and Treasurer, Janice Zweng. Guiding them on their educational journey and on several side trips were Mrs. Logsdon, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Burgoyne, with glimpses into Drama Land through "Pure as the Driven Snow," starring Marie Wisniesski and Bob McMain; Pat Van Buskirk and Tom Schwartz; and Dance Land with the beautiful and memorable New Year's Eve J-Hop, truly the social highlight of their voyage so far. Another important event was the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet given at Gratiot Inn on the shores of Lake Huron. John Welser did a superb job as Master of Ceremonies. To further band them together as a loyal group, they were now wearing rings, bearing the emblem of their organization. Valuable experiences of salesmanship on this stop in selling the humble "hot dog" and magazines helped the fund for future travels to grow. Alton Westrick and Carol Edwards won awards for selling the most magazines. At the end of the year Bob Groff, Malcolm MacKenzie, and John Welser represented us at Boy's State.

History

At last the ocean Steamer, puffing and groaning now made its memorable long anticipated entrance into the Harbor of Senior Land. At this point, two faithful guides, Mrs. Logsdon and Mr. Dawson, with one new one, Mr. Wenning, were on hand to guide them when guiding was necessary for by this time they were experienced voyagers. Kay Ingles and Joan Decker entered into Matrimony Land and Jim Rietz departed from the group leaving the passenger list now Sixty-six. They have been helped over difficult passages by the capable and experienced officers, First Mate, Malcolm MacKenzie; Second Mate, Alton Westrick; Barbara Linderholm, once more in charge of the ship's log, and Marie Wisniewski in charge of travel funds. We have presented, with much poise and assurance "You Can't Kiss Caroline," starring this time Janice Zweng and Gary Engelgau, have added to their experience in selling as well as to their travel funds, at basketball games on deck and checking coats at the well-known Fireman's Ball. At the Homecoming this year, Nancy Mehlberg was crowned "Homecoming Queen," attendants were Marie Wisniewski and Carroll Bailey. Crowned at the annual May Dance was May Queen Norma Jean Walker and her escort King Malcolm MacKenzie. We have assisted along the way, in editing the ship's paper, known as the "Echo" and the annual ship's log "The Clairvoyant". At the Mid-Winter Carnival we, the Seniors, staged the ever-loving Bowery. Here we discovered unknown talents. Among them the voices of the Barbershop Quartet.

The last lap of their journey took them into a harbor from whence they embarked to their nations capital at Washington, D. C. for a week of joyful sight-seeing. Many will be the happy memories of these who took this side trip alone. On their return, another journey into Dance Land followed, traditionally known as the Senior Prom.

Honor awards for highest achievement were given to Robert Hartlein, with Janice Zweng and Richard Vanderkolk, running close seconds. Through these voyages, various people were recognized by their talents; D. A. R. Norma Jean Walker; Drum Majorette, Nancy Mehlberg; Majorettes, Carroll Bailey and Kay Ingles; Cheerleader, Tuey Bartrow; Echo Editor, Tuey Bartrow; and Clairvoyant Editor, Carroll Bailey. Bob Groff won the Good Sportsmanship award in Basketball.

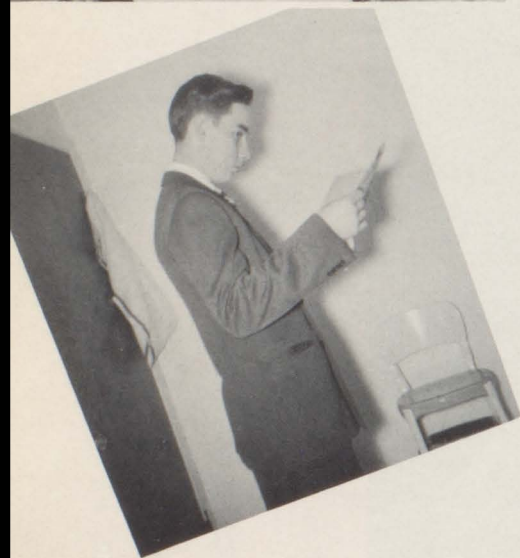

Now they have reached that spot from which none of them will carry on together the Voyage of Life. For from this prolonged itinerary, which has gained for them dignity, intelligence, and assurance, sixty-four voyagers have chosen their way. They are leaving St. Clair High regretfully, but hope their friendships will linger and that the journeys of their underclassmen may prove as interesting and worthwhile as theirs.

Class Will

We, the class of 1954, being of sound mind and body do hereby make, devise, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and rendering null and void all other wills and testaments heretofore made, devised, and declared by us.

To the Juniors we bequeath our front row center seats in all assemblies.
To the Sophomores we bequeath all money-making activities along with the mentality and vitality to carry them out.
To the Freshmen we bequeath the hope that they might enjoy their four years of high school as we have.

Dick Allington: Wills his car trouble to "Chet" Hayden.
Mim Ausbury: Wills her make-up kit to Sally Clark.
Carroll Bailey: Wills her blush to Joanie Nelson.
Tuey Bartrow: Wills her Don to Dragnet.
Earl Block: Wills his curly locks to "Fuzz" Ogden.
Bill Brand: Wills his Model T to Mr. Wilson to cat around in.
Jeanne Busch: Wills her laugh to Jim Fike.
Carol Edwards: Wills her wiggle to any Sophomore girl who thinks she is capable of handling it.
Mary Lou Cascadden: Wills her sharp convertible to Ted Smith to help him in his dating.
Marilee Callen: Wills her body and soul to the Bower Funeral Home. Take care of it, Beth.
Bill Curtis: Wills his height to Bill McCullum for next years basketball season.
Lydia Dandron: Wills her Richmond night life to Barbara Corry.
Chuck Davidson: Wills his speedshift technique to Tarch Westrick.
John Densmore: Wills his job in "B"s to Roy Neibauer.
Jerry Duchene: Wills his ability to skip school and not get caught to Jack Pauley.

Class

With all due apologies to Hamlet--"To be or not to be"; that is the question before our crystal gazing committee. As we furrow our brows and take a second and third look, we go out on a limb and predict the following:

Clyde Varty--"Pee Wee" has his own barber shop somewhere in Indiana and specializes in G. I. haircuts.

Warren Zimmer--has now been promoted to chief cook and bottle washer at the St. Clair Inn.

Dick Zimmer--has been married thirteen times and has just filed for divorce again.

John Densmore--"Butch" bought out Burgess's after working there for nineteen years.

Shirley Duncan--is a model at Bonwit Teller's in New York City.

Harriet Pollex--"Whiff" is a policewoman in Los Angeles and is known to be especially hard on the "hot-rodders".

Shirley Schlunkert--is superintendent of nurses at Ford Hospital.

Norma Walker--"Jeanne" is teaching at Moody Bible Institute.

John Welser--is head veterinarian at the Ann Arbor Animal Hospital.

Jacob Weil--makes all the H. A. Smiths bologna.

Bob Robbins--has his own motel in Arizona and is earning his second million.

Tom Yeip--is the president of General Motors.

Don Fleury--is a candidate for the ten best dressed men in the nation.

Phyllis Williams--is official bookkeeper for the Marysville Dairy.

Carroll Bailey--is married to Ken and keeping house for their eight red-headed children.

Brenda Guyor--is teaching kindergarten in California.

Janice Zweng--is a secretary in Mr. Eddy's office during the day and at night spends her time entertaining her four children.

Carol Suisse--has taken over Louella Parson's job as top Hollywood gossip.

Nancy Radike--is living in Florida with her husband Dave and their three children.

Jim Williams--is running a chain of motels in the St. Clair River District.

Jim Johnson--has taken over the Twin Pines Dairy.

Bob Sargent--is head man in the plastics division of a plant in Detroit.

Jim Ralston--has his own spray painting business and is estimating the cost of spray-painting the capitol building.

Charles Davidson--is an understudy for Mr. Peepers.

Bob Hartlein--is, after earning his "enth" degree, serving as Chairman of the United Nations.

Dick Vanderkolk--likes in Indianapolis where he is known as "Speedway Van."

Francis Williams--is a shortstop for the world champion New York Yankees.
